

Seder Night Activity

There are so many questions on Seder night. Here are a few more to help personalize your seder and draw people together. Each question is meant to help us become more reflective, curious and open - three characteristics that can lead us toward our own liberation! Please pick and choose the questions that resonate most based on the age and stage of your child/ren. Cut along the edge of the squares, fold and put the questions in a bowl. Pass them around for your guest to pick as seder night unfolds.

What is one thing you can't wait to do once pandemic restrictions end?	What gave you strength when you were having a hard time this year?	Who did you notice needed extra love this year? How did you help them?
Think back to a time when you overcame something hard in your family, what perspective did it give you?	What question would you love if someone asked you right now (from the sublime to the ridiculous)	What question would you love to ask your parents? Or Grandparents?
What is something you want to forget about this past year?	What is something you want to remember?	What is a dream you have for yourself?
What is one value that you care so deeply about you would want to yell it from the rooftops?	What is a blessing you want to wish for your family?	What is a blessing you would want to wish for yourself?
